

CSCMP Recognition Program for Supply Chain and Senior Supply Chain Professional Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

- What is the Supply Chain Professional (SCP) / Senior Supply Chain Professional (Sr. SCP) Recognition Program?

The SCP/Sr. SCP Recognition Program is a process designed to identify a company's best supply chain talent within their firm and then to recognize those people by the CSCMP. By recognizing this excellent talent, companies can help utilize their expertise more effectively within their company and the industry.

- What are the advantages for creating a program like this in my company?

The program will help you identify and recognize significant individual contribution to your company and/or the industry. The program will raise the awareness within your company and industry of the importance of the role of supply chain professionals. This recognition is an incentive to other employees to earn the achievement and encourage other people to become part of the profession.

- What type of company or organization may participate?

Any type of company or organization that employs supply chain professionals may apply to CSCMP. There are no restrictions as to company mission, size, or location.

- Who approves the recognition in CSCMP?

A company with the approval of CSCMP can nominate an individual that will be reviewed by CSCMP for alignment to the program.

- Are there fees associated with this program?

There are no fees associated with the program.

- Is the program easy to administer?

Yes, a kit has been developed to help you organize this within your company and give you instructions to establish your program with CSCMP. Many items are standardized to simplify the process.

- My company has no plans to develop a recognition program. Can I get involved as an individual?

There are no provisions for CSCMP to provide individual recognition. The current process provides for CSCMP to work with companies to develop, implement, and approve a recognition program, and then for those companies to recognize these individuals.

- Can I transfer my recognition if I leave the firm that recognized me?

The recognition you receive is only from the company that provided it. However, your skills, knowledge, and experience, on which the recognition is based, go with you and should facilitate receiving a similar recognition at the new job.

- Is this program really just a CSCMP certification in supply chain management?

No. It is not a certification program. CSCMP is not a certifying body.

- How can we get started?

Download the “starter kit” which includes a model program description, sample forms, and an application to CSCMP. You can also request a kit via email at scmpref@cscmp.org or call +1 630-574-0985.
