The Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals

Includes over 3,000 experts, decision makers, and influencers with global reach - driving the supply chain industry in Southern California.

Who is CSCMP?

The Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP) is the leading global professional association dedicated to education, research, and the advancement of the supply chain management profession. We educate and connect the world's supply chain professionals.

The local Southern California Roundtable is one of a global network of over 100 roundtables within CSCMP.

Founded in 1963, we provide educational, career development, and networking opportunities to members and to the entire Supply Chain Management profession.

Sponsorship goes beyond the benefits

Your sponsorship of the CSCMP Southern California Roundtable positively impacts our local industry.

The Southern California Roundtable supports local industry interests

- Partnership of business and academia to nurture and develop a qualified workforce.
- Advocacy of industry interests within local and regional business communities.
- Scholarship funding for students excelling in supply chain related majors.
- Mentorship programs developing future leaders of industry.

Frequent event schedule promotes advocacy revealing opportunities to serve

- Site visits to leading supply chain industry businesses and operations.
- Seminars with topics addressing challenges in today's supply chain.
- Professional development programs providing educational and professional resources to advance careers.
- Professional/industry networking events
