

CSCMP MISSION STATEMENT

To lead the supply chain profession by connecting, developing, and educating the world's logistics and supply chain management professionals throughout their careers

CSCMP ROUNDTABLES

The Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals is an organization of members for members by members. Our Roundtables enhance member value by providing a sense of continuity from one annual conference to the next. The global roundtable community provides a forum to both members and potential members in the supply chain community to CONNECT with like-minded professionals, DEVELOP leadership and management skills, and attend and participate in events that EDUCATE those interested in the supply chain discipline.

YOUNG PROFESSIONAL CHAIR:

The Young Professional Chair reports to the VP of Programs within a CSCMP Roundtable. Their role is to help enhance the culture and community of local students and young supply chain professionals through connectivity, development, and education. With the various generations existing in the workplace, the Young Professionals are looked upon as future leadership. The YP Chair role serves CSCMP as an organization, the Young Professional's Committee as leadership, and the roundtable community as representation.

Requirements

- Attend orientation conducted by the Young Professional Process Team Committee to ensure understanding of CSCMP, the Young Professional Committee, and the Roundtable community.
- Maintain CSCMP Membership (Young professionals serving on a Roundtable Board receive a $50 discount off annual dues).
- Attend Roundtable events.
- Able to commit 5-10 hours (as needed) per month.
- Live in the geography served.

Connect

Create a roundtable community that is inclusive of all generations by promoting events that bridge the generations together.

- This roundtable board committee chair position is focused on collaborating with the VP of Programs in the development of events to serve students and Young Professionals entering the supply chain discipline.
- Collaborate with the Education Chair to build awareness and develop relationships with local schools providing supply chain curriculum.
- Collaborate with roundtable officers to assist in creating vested relationships with local Young Professional members and Student members to engage and support their career endeavors
- Advocate on behalf of CSCMP membership and its importance throughout the member lifecycle.

Educate

Be an active and engaged community leader! Mentor students and Young Professionals entering the supply chain industry, encourage and grow participation at local roundtable events and support a culture of continuous learning.

Develop

In collaboration with the VP of Programs, assist in the development and delivery of two roundtable events that are created specifically to connect supply chain professionals new to the industry to those who are seasoned professionals for each program year. A few ideas are:

- Take-A-Student/Young Professional-To-Work Day
- Speed Interview/Meeting with Supply Chain Executives
- Collegiate Competition
- Career Day
- SCPro Study Group
